No. 317A06-2

FILED: 20 MARCH 2009

Appeal pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-30(2) from the decision of a divided panel of the Court of Appeals, 189 N.C. App. ___, 658 S.E.2d 11 (2008), affirming an order entered 21 March 2006 by Judge Henry W. Hight, Jr. in Superior Court, Wake County. Heard in the Supreme Court 8 September 2008.

North Carolina Institute for Constitutional Law, by Jeanette Doran Brooks and Robert F. Orr, for plaintiff-appellants; and North Carolina Justice Center, by Jack Holtzman, for plaintiff-intervenor-appellants Willis Williams and the North Carolina Common Sense Foundation.

Roy Cooper, Attorney General, by Norma S. Harrell and Ronald M. Marquette, Special Deputy Attorneys General, for defendant-appellees.

PER CURIAM.

Justice MARTIN did not participate in the consideration or decision of this case. As to the appeal of right based on the dissenting opinion, the remaining members of the Court are equally divided, with three members voting to affirm and three members voting to reverse the decision of the Court of Appeals.

Accordingly, the decision of the Court of Appeals is left undisturbed and stands without precedential value. See, e.g., Barham v. Hawk, 360 N.C. 358, 625 S.E.2d 778 (2006).

AFFIRMED.
